"A New Series On Archaeology",
a review by Carroll Quigley in The Washington Sunday Star, November 7, 1965, of a book:
MESOPOTAMIA,
by Jean-Claude Margueron. Translated from the French by H. S. B. Harrison.
World Publishing Co.: New York, 1965

Sunday Star
November 1965

"A New Series On Archaeology"

MESOPOTAMIA.
By Jean-Claude Margueron. Translated from the French by H. S. B. Harrison.
World Publishing Co. $12.50.

This is the first of a 21-volume series being manufactured in Switzerland, under the direction of Jean Marcado, professor of archaeology at the University of Bordeaux. The series titles is “Archaeology Mundi.”

This first volume seems to be directed at the large market for books in archaeology and art history. The 130 reproductions of archaeological objects, although good, are by no means outstanding, and the 53 pages of text, while accurate and up-to-date, is very brief and has nothing to do with the objects illustrated. On the whole the new series cannot compare in price or quality with other similar works.

-- Carroll Quigley

Please email the editors (editors@carrollquigley.net) with corrections, questions, or if you have other works by Professor Quigley you would like to see posted.